POLICE DEPARTMENT

ELMER F. HILLNER, Superintendent

April 11, 1944

Hon. Marvin L. Kline, Mayor,
City of Minneapolis,
Minneapolis, Minnesota

My dear Mr. Mayor:

It is with a great deal of pleasure that I have the privilege of submitting to you herewith the annual report covering the activities of the Police Department for the year 1943.

Minneapolis during 1943 experienced one of the best years in the history of the Department insofar as major crime was concerned.

In traffic fatalities we ranked third in the United States in 1943, for cities in our population group, 250,000 to 500,000, for which we received honorable mention from the National Safety Council. Had we been in the 500,000 class we would have ranked No. 1 for the past several years.

The juvenile situation has shown an increase, but by no means is there any cause for alarm. The citizens have taken a great interest in the juvenile problem, and I am sure that 1944 will show a decrease instead of an increase.

I am very much concerned with the number of personnel of the Department. There is no question that the Department is entirely undermanned, although the cost per capita is the smallest of any city of our size in the United States. The very minimum of personnel that the Department should have is 750, and every effort should be exerted to bring the facts before the citizens of Minneapolis.

In closing I wish to say that I believe we owe a debt of gratitude to our former Chief, Joseph M. Jonas, for the admirable manner in which the Department was conducted during his term of office.

Very respectfully yours,
Elmer F. Hillner,
Superintendent of Police.
